Lauren,

As you observed on the record at today's hearing, you publicly disclosed information that Apple had designated as HC-AEO, which is a clear violation of the Protective Order. A review of the transcript of today's hearing, which we just received, confirms that this occurred on page 28, lines 11-15. Apple requests that Epic file a motion to seal this portion of the transcript given that the violation was Epic's and not Apple's. As time is of the essence, please confirm that Epic will do this by tomorrow. Apple filed a similar motion with respect to a prior breach by counsel for Developer Plaintiffs so the template is already there. If Epic refuses to do this, Apple will be forced to file the motion to seal itself and to seek sanctions.

Please confirm by 9 am PT tomorrow whether Epic will file the appropriate motion to seal by tomorrow, December 31, 2020.
